

Student Spotlight

Rei Perry

This month's student spotlight is on Rei Perry. She is currently in her 3rd year at Fullerton College and getting ready to transfer to CSUF this Spring. She is majoring in Early Childhood Education. A phrase that Rei wants all students to remember is "Love Yourself" <3

Event Highlights

Ghouls Night Out

On October 27th, TPP and AJPP hosted their first combined social event. We enjoyed getting to see everyone in their best costumes and hope you all had a great time!

College/ FAFSA Applications

Students planning on transferring in Fall 23, Cal State, UC, and some private school applications are due November 30th. The FASFA application for the 23 - 24 school year is now open! Get all applications in as soon as possible.

Showcase your work

This month's artwork was submitted anonymously by one of our second-year students. This student has been drawing and painting for as long as they can remember. It has always been a creative outlet for them. Currently, their favorite thing to draw is eyes, you can find these abstract eyes in all their current pieces.

What is TPP listening to?
